

TEAM ARMY BIO

Staff Sergeant Adam Proctor has been serving in the U.S. Army since 2006, with two deployments to Iraq from Fort Bliss; first to Mosul in 2007 and then to Amarah in 2009. Following his deployments, Proctor spent three years stationed in Tripoli working in the emergency room. He then transitioned to San Antonio, where he took on a role as an instructor.

After his teaching stint, SSG Proctor was assigned to 3rd Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell. In October 2020, he faced a life-changing event when he lost his leg. Despite this challenge, by June 2023, he was evaluated and found fit for duty and continues to serve at Blanchfield Army Community Hospital (BACH) at Fort Campbell. Adam is a dedicated family man, married with five boys ranging in age from nine to 17.
